Case No.: 16-30001 (JKS)

Adv. No.: 18-01229 (JKS)

Chapter: 7

Judge: John K. Sherwood, U.S.B.J.

Debtor.

NOTICE OF PROPOSED COMPROMISE or SETTLEMENT OF CONTROVERSY

---

Eric R. Perkins, Chapter 7 Trustee for Pro Construction Trades, Inc. d/b/a Premier Facility Services, proposes a compromise, or to settle a claim and/or an action as described below. If you object to the settlement or compromise, you must file a written objection with the Clerk of the United States Bankruptcy Court, and serve it on the person named below no later than 7 days before the hearing date.

Address of the Clerk:

Clerk of the U.S. Bankruptcy Court
Martin Luther King, Jr. Federal Building
50 Walnut Street
Newark, NJ 07102

If an objection is filed, a hearing will be held before the Honorable John K. Sherwood on November 27, 2018 at 10:00 a.m. at the United States Bankruptcy Court, Courtroom No. 3D, 50 Walnut Street, 3rd Floor, Newark, NJ 07102 (hearing to be scheduled for at least 28 days from the date of the filing of the notice.) If no objection is filed the clerk will enter a Certification of No Objection and the settlement may be completed as proposed.

Nature of Action:

On October 19, 2016 (the “Petition Date”), the Debtor filed a voluntary petition for relief under Chapter 11 of Title 11 of the United States Code (the “Bankruptcy Code”) in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of New Jersey (the “Bankruptcy Court”). On May 1, 2017 (the “Conversion Date”), the Debtor’s bankruptcy case was converted to one under Chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code. On May 4, 2017, Eric R. Perkins was appointed as Chapter 7 Trustee (the “Trustee”) for the Debtor’s bankruptcy estate. Prior to the Conversion Date, the Debtor was engaged in the business of property management.

Brian D. Troast (“Troast”) has been the sole principal and president of the Debtor since its inception. During the course of the Trustee’s investigation of the Debtors books and records, and in response to issued subpoenas, he learned that during the two-year period prior to the Petition Date, the Debtor made payments to a personal credit card issued to Troast by American Express National Bank, f/k/a American Express Centurion Bank and successor by merger to American Express Bank, FSB, incorrectly plead as American Express (“American Express”). The Debtor made payments totaling $203,434.08 to American Express which were applied as payments towards purchases made on Troast’s personal credit card. Upon information and belief, there was no valid business purpose for the Debtor to make payment for charges on Troast’s personal credit card. The Trustee determined that these payments appeared to be constructively fraudulent transfers by the Debtor to American Express, on the basis that the payments were made to pay personal and/or family obligations of Troast, and that such payments were made by the Debtor without the Debtor receiving a reasonable equivalent value in exchange for the transfers, and at the time of the payments, the Debtor intended to incur, or believed or reasonably should have believed that the Debtor would incur debts beyond the Debtor’s ability to pay as they became due.

The Trustee filed an adversary action in this Court under the caption Eric R. Perkins v. American Express, which was assigned Docket No. 18-01229 (the “Litigation”), in which he sought damages of $203,438.08 from American Express.

Pertinent terms of settlement:

As a result of settlement negotiations, the Trustee has agreed to accept $124,000.00 from American Express as a compromise of his claim totaling $203,434.08.

The Parties and their respective counsel have determined that the settlement is fair and equitable, and that given the inherent risks of litigation, this settlement is in the best interest of the Debtor's estate and its creditors.

Objections must be served on, and requests for additional information directed to:
